ORDER

Hearing taken up. The complainant is present in person. No one is present on behalf of the respondent.

The complainant submits that the respondent has paid the interest in last month but few amounts are still being paid on the monthly basis. He further prays for directing the respondent to continue their payment so that once the payment is complete the parties can move for deed cancellation process in the subjected court.

Bench directs the respondent to pay the remaining interest amount timely and if the complainant faces any issue, he may approach the court again.

Hence, the case stands disposed off.
