ORDER

The case of the complainants that M/s Shri Ashutosh Securities Pvt. Ltd who was one of the allottees had booked two flats, that is, Flat no. 1 and 04 both on 7th floor with 2 reserved car parking space at the ground floor in the respondent's project named as "Silver Coast" situated at Nasriganj, Digha, Patna. Due to some personal difficulty, the company through Mr. Krishna Kumar Rungta agreed to sell flat no. 1 admeasuring 1690 sq.ft with one reserved car parking space to complainants for a consideration of Rs 50,70,000/-. All the three parties had entered into tripartite Agreement for Sale dated 28/02/2014. The complainants allege that they have paid the entire consideration amount in accordance with the agreement but till date they have not got the possession of the flat even after lapse of six years. The said project is still incomplete.

The respondents have submitted that due to unavoidable situations delay in construction occurred as the land on which the project had to be constructed was handed over to the respondents after delay on behalf of the landowners. As far as the issue of the payment done by the complainants exists, the respondents highlighted that they have only paid a sum of Rs 10,20,000/- out of Rs 50,70,000/-. They had to pay the remaining amount according to the work schedule of the project which they failed to do. Furthermore, there was no date mentioned in the agreement between the respondent company, M/s Ashutosh Securities Pvt Ltd and the complainants. In respect of further delay is concerned, the respondents state due to COVID 19 government had given relaxation due to Force Majeure.

The complainant has placed on record copy of agreement for sale, allotment letter, agreement for sale dated 28.02.2014.

On the last date of hearing, the learned counsel for the complainant submitted that the structure of the building is ready but progress of the finishing work is not satisfactory. The learned counsel for the respondent submitted that the project will be completed by 31/10/2022 and the RERA, Bihar has also extended the registration of the project.

The Authority notes that the allottees have not established that they have made the payment as per the agreed schedule. The promoter has not provided requisite documents to establish that the consideration amount is due.

The Authority directs the promoter to send a demand letter to the complainant and the allottees to make the payment of the remaining consideration amount, if due.

The Authority directs the respondent company to complete the project with all the amenities as mentioned in the agreement for sale and brochure of the project by 31/10/2022. If the respondent fails to complete the project by 31/10/2022, then a penalty of Rs.1,000/- for each day of delay would be imposed.

With these directions and observations, the matter is disposed of.
